

INSPIRE AND MOTIVATE YOUR TEAM WITH THE 2009-2010 WEBINAR SERIES FOR PROFESSIONAL WOMEN

In this economy, employees are doing more with less. With smaller teams and budgets, they're wearing many hats to help their companies succeed. These challenging times call for cost-effective leadership development tools to help them build new skills, boost efficiency and branch out of their comfort zone.

Invent Your Future has expanded our highly-acclaimed webinar series for 2009-2010 with six thought-provoking web courses delivered by technical and non-technical experts from top Silicon Valley companies. Call us today and learn how to fast-track your learning programs with exciting new topics all year long.

Cost effective - as low as $8 per participant.

Plan a lunch and learn session for your workgroup, department or women's network. A scalable, high value solution at a very low cost.

Tailored for women in all functional areas: Engineering/development, marketing, finance, sales, customer support and more.

Dynamic learning environment: Arrange follow-up sessions so your group can discuss key takeaways and strategize on applying the tips and techniques to drive business results. The webinars focus on building critical professional skills in areas such as leadership development, communication and negotiation. Potential topics planned for this year's series are:

- In the Hot Seat: Presenting Like a Pro
- Negotiation and Risk Taking to Advance Your Career
- Getting Your Message Across: Increasing Your Clout, Influence and Authority
- Creating Your Personal Board of Directors
- (More) Strategies for Work/Life Management
- Social Networking: Hype or Help?
- Balance Sheet Boot Camp: Finance for Non-Financial Managers
- What Age is Your Brain?

Join companies such as Hewlett-Packard, SAP Labs and Symantec who have registered for the series at our corporate rate (up to 100 participants).

"The IYF webinar series has brought thought leaders and inspiring stories to many women who could simply not travel to attend a seminar. Our women's network finds these very helpful as women look for a broader perspective to supplement their learning."
